Whatever may be said of the scientific causes upon which the Rev. Irl R. Hicks based his yearly forecasts of storm and weather, it is a remarkable fact that specific warnings of every great storm, flood, cold wave and drouth, have been plainly printed in his now famous Almanac for many years. The startling proof of this fact was the destruction of Galveston, Texas, on the very day named by Prof. Hicks in his 1900 Almanac, as one of disaster by storm along the gulf coasts. The 1901 Almanac, by far the finest, most complete and beautiful yet published, is now ready. This remarkable book of near two hundred pages, splendidly illustrated with charts and half-tone engravings, goes as a premium to every subscriber who pays one dollar a year for Prof. Hicks' journal, WORD AND WORKS. The Almanac alone is sent prepaid for only 25c. Order from WORD AND WORKS Publishing Company, 2201 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Every discriminating person will say that The Biggle books advertised in this issue of the Times, contain a greater amount of condensed, common sense, well arranged information than any books they have seen relating to these important branches of farm industry. The price of each is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

There is but one representative of the negro race in Congress and his name is White. He is from North Carolina.

The Democratic State Presidential electors met at Frankfort Monday and cast the vote of Kentucky for Bryan and Stevenson.

It is said that John W. Langley, defeated Republican candidate for Congress a few years ago, will be an applicant for District Attorney in the new Federal District.

This is told of a Missouri editor who was recently blessed with a baby boy. A little sister, after examining the baby, went to her father and asked: "Did we get him on advertising too, papa?"

An exchange says: "The true measurement of a man is not on the street nor amen corner of the church, but at his own fireside. There he lays aside his mask and you can tell whether he is a devil or an angel, hero or humbug. If his children dread his home coming and his wife swallows her heart every time she asks for something, he is a fraud of the first water, even though he prays until he is black in the face, and shouts hallelujah until the hills shake.

Possibly there never was a paper in any locality that gave all the local happenings. It is often that some who come or go that the editor does not see. It happens that a family is missed several times. They get the impression that the paper man does not care to mention them, or has a grudge against them. It's a mistake. The paper has no ill-feeling towards anybody. It is going to do what is right by everybody. Most people take a local paper to get the local happenings. Don't be afraid to tell the editor you have friends visiting you. Perhaps you think the paper shows partiality, but just try and see if it doesn't treat you right if you give it a chance.—Ex.

Against Kissing.

A crusade is being waged against kissing, the chief objection being that disease is thus communicated by the deadly microbe passing from lip to lip, says an exchange. From what we have heard and read about the kissing habit, we believe it will never be abolished. When two spooning lovers look into each others' eyes and squeeze each others' hands for an hour or two, with the lamp turned low, a herd of microbes as big as rabbits would not stop them from kissing each other. Nothing short of the toe of the old man's boot will ever check the disease, and then it is sure to break out in a more violent form the next time the lovers meet. You might scare a setting hen off the nest by talking microbes to her, but stop kissing—never! Kissing has come to stay.

Told The Truth.

A clergyman not long since observed a horse jockey trying to take in a gentleman by imposing upon him a broken-winded horse for a sound one. The parson, taking the gentleman aside, told him to be cautious of the person he was dealing with. The gentleman declined the purchase, and the jockey, quite nettled, observed, "Parson, I had much rather hear you preach than to see you privately interfere in bargains between man and man in this way." "Well," replied the parson, "if you had been where you ought to have been last Sunday you might have heard me preach." "Where was that?" inquired the jockey. "In the State prison," returned the clergyman.

Kentucky Stock in Cuba.

The sum of $110,000 has been appropriated for the purchase of 3,000 cattle and 500 brood mares to be distributed in Cuba among the farmers of the provinces of Santa Clara, Puerto Principe and Santiago, where they will be sold at cost and on easy installments. Senor Dacoste, Secretary of Agriculture, in a recent visit to the United States, made inquiries as to the classes of cattle best adapted to Cuba and decided in favor of Kentucky stock. If they take any but very young stock, we mean calves, weanlings, every one would die in that tropical climate.—Ex.

Asylum Crowded.

The Eastern Kentucky Insane Asylum at Lexington is taxed to its utmost capacity, 992 patients, and this week seven unfortunates were turned away. They were sent to Lakeland on orders from Governor Beckham. The growth of insanity in Eastern Kentucky is appalling. It is attributed to the custom of intermarriage among the mountaineers. The next Legislature will be asked for an appropriation for additional buildings at that institution.

A woman in a neighboring town has broken her husband of staying out late at nights. A few weeks ago she went to the door when he came and whispered through the key hole. "Is that you, Willie?" Her husband's name was not Willie, and now he stays at home at nights to see if Willie comes.

On Christmas morning about three o'clock a lady about ten days old was left on the doorstep of DeWitt C. Tipton, living near Plum, Montgomery county. Accompanying the foundling was a sack containing $1,000. Mr. Tipton and his wife have no children of their own and are extremely proud of their little guest.—Owingsville Outlook.

To Whip The Editor.

"What are you crying about?" asked a kind-hearted stranger of a lad standing in front of a newspaper office, weeping as if his heart would break. "Oh, pa's gone up stairs to whip the editor." "Well, has he come down yet?" pursued the gentle Samaritan. "Pieces of him have," said the boy, with a fresh burst of tears, "and I'm expecting the rest every minute."—Ex.

Nerve Influence

Is the subtle force which controls the different organs of the body. It makes them strong or weak, healthy or diseased, according as the brain and nerves are strong and vigorous or weak and diseased. Weak nerves cause headache, nervousness, neuralgia, indigestion, heart trouble and many other forms of chronic weakness. Make the nerves strong, the brain clear and active and the body will be healthy and vigorous.

"When I first began the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine I was suffering greatly with nervousness and a dizziness in my head. I was so weak that I could not be out in the sun during the heat of the day at all, my kidneys were badly troubled and I had a breaking out all over my body. In a few weeks the nervous troubles were all gone, then the kidney trouble was cured and finally the eruptions all disappeared."

FARM, FURNACE AND FACTORY, ROANOKE, VA.

It is natural for towns to grow when there is any unusual excitement to draw population, and to decline when the cause of excitement fails. A sudden discovery of coal, gas, or other substance that promises quick return, is sure to cause an influx of population, and a like discovery somewhere else leads to an exodus. Some people remind us of chickens when being fed—they desert the food at their feet to run for a handful farther away. These rolling stones never cease to roll until worn out, and their successors take up the business where they left off. They spend their substance seeking a better place, and never finding it, keep up the search until they find rest in the bosom of the earth, generally at the expense of some one else. There is hardly any inhabitable place on earth where man cannot earn a fair living, if he will hustle for it and not spend his time seeking better opportunities.—Winchester Democrat.
